

Upgrade for free to MG6 SE and TSE

- Q4 offers feature free upgrades on model specification.
- Offers available on selected MG6 GT and Magnette Diesel models
- Up to £3000 savings available
- Offers available 01 October -31 December 2013

MG is pleased to reveal Q4 offers for 2013, specifically a free upgrade in specification on selected MG6 Diesel models until 31 December.

The Longbridge based manufacturer is offering a free upgrade on specification allowing customers to buy an MG6 GT SE Diesel for the same price as an S, saving £1,200, and a TSE for the same price as an SE, saving £2,000.

Magnette customers also benefit from Q4 offers, as a Magnette DTi-TECH TSE available for the same price as an MG6 GT SE, a saving of £3,000.

The free upgrade in specification sees the addition of satellite navigation, rear parking sensors, cruise control and leather steering wheel to the S variant to become the SE. Building on the SE trim, the TSE features front parking sensors, 18" alloy wheels, rear parking camera, leather trim, Bluetooth, automatic headlights, automatic windscreen wipers and electric heated seats.

MG Head of Sales; Sam Burton said: "These offers give our customers the opportunity for excellent money-off deals together with competitive finance packages and exceptionally high levels of equipment as standard."

These offers follow the announcement of £99 per month or zero deposit PCP finance deals on the marque's latest offering, the MG3.

About MG Motor

For almost 90 years MG has become famous for building distinctive, British small cars at a remarkably affordable price. The MG3 is the new, small modern MG that brings style and fun to a new generation. Today, MG is owned by the SAIC Motor Corporation, rated 103rd in the Fortune 500.

Modern MGs are still designed, engineered and undergo final assembly at MG's historic home in Longbridge, Birmingham and the MG3 is no exception- giving a fresh twist on the innovation, sporty performance and statement style that first made the MG badge famous.
